

PRIVACY POLICY & SITE SECURITY

Thank you for visiting the official web site of the National Active and Retired Federal Employees of New York (NARFE-NY). We hope that you find this site interesting, and informative.

Our privacy policy is clear and simple:

We will collect no personal information about you (especially, any personal financial information) when you visit our website unless you choose to provide that information to us either by email or by completion of one of our online contact forms. We will never solicit your name, address, personal identification information or similar data by asking for it through email. And we never share any of your personal or contact information with any other third parties; except for NARFE chapter leaders in your area.

To learn more about how you can protect your computer from internet fraud, viruses, and such and protect your personal information, we recommend educating yourself by visiting www.onguardonline.gov

Here is how we handle information about your visit to our website:

Information Collected and Stored Automatically

If you do nothing during your visit but browse through the website, read pages, or download information, we will gather and store certain information about your visit automatically. This information does not identify you personally. We automatically collect and store only the following information about your visit:

The Internet domain (for example, "youragency.gov" if you connect from a government domain, "yourschool.edu" if you connect from a university's domain, or "xcompany.com" if you use a private Internet access account) and IP address (an IP address is a number that is automatically assigned to your computer whenever you are surfing the Web) from which you access our website;

The type of browser and operating system used to access our site;
The date and time you access our site;

The pages you visit; and

If you linked to our website from another website, the address of that website.

We use this information to help us make our site more useful to visitors to learn about the number of visitors to our site and the types of technology our visitors use. We do not track or record information about individuals and their visits. We do not enable "cookies." (A "cookie" is a file placed on your hard drive by a website that allows it to monitor your use of the site.)

If You Send Us Personal Information

If you choose to provide us with personal information as in an email to one of our online email boxes, or by filling out a contact form with your personal information and submitting it to us through our website we use that information to respond to your message and to help us get you the information you have requested.

We treat emails the same way we treat letters sent to us, but we do not collect personal information for any purpose other than to respond to you. We collect personally identifiable information (name, email address, Social Security number, or other unique identifier) only if specifically and knowingly provided by you.

We do not share the information you give us with another government agency or third party; or as otherwise required by law. Moreover, we do not create individual profiles with the information you provide or give it to any private organizations. We do not collect information for commercial marketing.

Links to Other Sites

Our website has links to other sites and federal agencies. We also link to other organizations' website's when we have a good business reason to do so. This does not constitute an endorsement of their policies or products. Once you link to another site, you are subject to the privacy policy of the new site.

Site Security

We ensure that our website remains available to all users by using a computer system that employs software programs to monitor network traffic to identify unauthorized attempts to upload or change information, or otherwise cause damage.

Disclaimer: Appearance of Google Ads, or any other third party commercial ads, does not constitute an endorsement by NARFE or NARFE-NY of the products or services offered.
